*From our Pastor, Fr. George...Dear Parishioners of St. Martha, Sunday Sermon – 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

(1 Kings) Elijah called Elisha from field plowing to become a prophet in Israel. Elisha killed the animals that pulled the plow and he then used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh and gave it to his people to eat. Elisha did not hesitate to become Elijah's assistant. He didn't look back; he didn't keep any item of his former profession and he showed that he was committed to it. When God called him, Elisha obeyed, he left his old life behind him and followed his new master, Elijah.

Paul speaks about freedom that Jesus gives us: "For freedom Christ set us free; stand firm and do not submit to the yoke of slavery" (Galatians 5:1). He speaks about freedom from anything selfish which could take us from the service of love to our neighbors. Anything that takes us away from serving Christ and our neighbor, stands in the way of love.

(Luke) Gospel: Proclaim the kingdom of God in various places, put you whole heart into it, revive people's faith.

Samaria was the territory between Judea and Galilee west of the Jordan river. For ethnic and religious reasons, Samaritans and Jews were bitterly opposed to one another. This explains why one Samaritan village refused to welcome Jesus; they didn't know him, they only knew that he was a Jew who was travelling to Jerusalem. Jesus didn't hold this against them, he moved on to another village. James and John wanted to punish that village and send the fire from heaven on it, but Jesus rebuked them for such extreme intentions. If one refuses to welcome the Good News, go to someone else who will welcome it. Be prepared to meet opposition, hostility and even persecution. Don't give up, don't get discouraged. Be smart.

In these sayings Jesus speaks of the severity and the unconditional nature of Christian discipleship. Even family ties and filial obligations, such as burying one's parents, cannot distract one, no matter how briefly, from proclaiming the kingdom of God. Proclaiming the Gospel is so important that it takes precedence before anything else.

Let the dead bury their dead – let the spiritually dead (those who do not follow) bury their physically dead. This is about the revival of faith through the right hierarchy of values. Some people lost it and they are spiritually dead. Something that the church Hymn Seek Ye First sings about. It says other things will be added unto you if you first seek the Kingdom of God.

Solemnity of St. Peter and St. Paul (June 29th)

Our Liturgical Ordo tells us that Peter, who died in the year 64 in Roma under Nero, was a Galilean fisherman and the spokesman for the Twelve who became the "Prince of the Apostles". Two epistles are ascribed to him, and he is the patron saint of those in the fishing industry.

Paul, according to tradition, was martyred in Rome in the year 67. He was a Pharisee who became the "Apostle of the Gentiles". His letters may be dated from 50-65 and he is the patron of the lay apostolate: the Cursillo Movement and Catholic Action; also of Malta and Greece.

May God bless our Church through the intercessions of Saints Peter & Paul.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Songs of Praise

There will be an exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursday, June 30th right after the 5:30 p.m. Mass until 7 p.m. in our Church. We are going to adore the Lord Jesus present in the Eucharist with our songs of praise to his Most Holy Body and Blood and his Most Sacred Heart. Please join in for this hour of joyful adoration of Christ as our part in the national Eucharistic revival.

Prayer for the end of war in Ukraine
Send forth your Spirit O Lord and renew the face of the earth

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalms 86)

Send forth your Spirit O Lord and renew the face of the earth.

Intercession for Life

The Bishop's Conference of the USA is asking us to pray. This week we pray: May Catholics recognize the needs of pregnant and parenting women present in their communities and help them to obtain the necessities of life!

Church roof replacement information

Bishop Frank J. Dewane, who attended the St. Martha Finance Council meeting on April 6th, 2022 recommended for the replacement of the Church roof. Following, the Chancellor of the Diocese of Venice, Dr. Volodymyr Smeryk attended the St. Martha Finance Council meeting on April 27th, 2022 and confirmed this recommendation, referencing the water leaks. The Diocese proposed Crowther Roofing Company who prepared a quote for the roof replacement. The Finance Council looked into obtaining two other quotes, but due material and labor issues, none of the companies that were approached were able to help us at this time. In order to avoid price increases, the Diocese requested a decision from the Pastor to begin the project and so now we expect the work to begin soon. We will keep you updated with any disruptions that may affect access to the Church and the Mass schedule.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

The Bishops of the United States are calling for a three-year grassroots revival of devotion to the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. They believe that God wants to see a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed, and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist - and sent out in mission “for the life of the world.” These three years will culminate in the first National Eucharistic Congress in the United States in almost fifty years. Nearly a hundred thousand Catholics will join together in Indianapolis for a once-in-a-lifetime pilgrimage toward the “source and summit” of our Catholic faith. The Eucharistic Revival begins with the Diocesan phase, from June 19, 2022, through June 11, 2023 and will include a Eucharistic Congress . Stay tuned for more information! To learn more about the National Eucharistic Revival, please visit <https://eucharisticrevival.org>. There you will find a free online course from Bishop Cozzens, “The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church,” which can be utilized in parishes, small groups, or for individual study. Bishop Cozzens is head of the Committee for Evangelization and Catechesis at the USCCB.

Ave Maria University Youth Conference is being held July 8 to 10 which includes talks, Mass, Adoration, praise and worship, fellowship, opportunities for confession and much more. The sessions are informal and offer a safe place in which to share your journey, your concerns, and to once more be embraced by the Catholic faith. The four sessions are June 8, June 22, July 13 and July 27 in the Finegan Center Conference Room at Church of the Incarnation Only those returning to the faith should attend. To register, email: lhutchison@incarnationchurch.org or call 941 921-6631 ext. 228.

Men are hurting from their abortion experiences too. Men often push down their experience or cover it up with unhealthy behaviors. For six weeks beginning on Saturday, July 9, from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Naples, Father Mark Harris will team up with Nathan Misirian from Support After Abortion to co-facilitate a program just for men wounded, angry or hurt by abortion.
