*From our Pastor, Fr. George...Dear Parishioners of St. Martha, Happy Retirement Fr. Patrick!

Fr. Patrick Wilson, S.A.C. has retired from his position as Parochial Vicar in St. Martha Parish on July 4th, 2022. We wish him a happy retirement and offer our prayers of thanksgiving for his 16 years of pastoral ministry for the parishioners of our downtown parish. Fr. Patrick will stay around and still help in some pastoral ministry. Fr. Patrick is so well known for his involvement in charity activities and services to the needy among us. We thank you for your big heart and kind words. We thank you for celebrating the Church's sacraments among us, for preaching the Word of God, for your ministry in nursing homes, our Bishop Nevin's Academy, and the local correction institute as well as our local hospital. In the past he was the Director of Religious Education in St. Martha and was a key person in the celebrations of the World Youth Days. We wish you a well-deserved retirement! May God bless you!

Sunday Sermon – 15th Sunday of the Year “C”

We need to notice what St. Luke says at the very beginning of today's gospel passage. And it is a statement that said: “a scholar of the law stood up to test Jesus”. St. Luke says this wasn't a discussion between the two teachers trying to discover the truth about the love of God. It was a challenge to Jesus from a teacher of the law who wanted to test Jesus's knowledge and authority in the subject of the law. When he asked: “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus told him nothing less and nothing more than what the scholar knew already from the law itself. Jesus said: “What is written in the law? How do you read it?” The lawyer was happy to recite the formula of the law of Moses: “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself”. To his surprise Jesus confirmed that it was the right and valid answer.

So far so good, but the lawyer wanted very much to present his strict take on the law, and he asked: “And who is my neighbor?” St. Luke tells us that the lawyer posed this question because he wished to justify himself. To justify the difference between him and what Jesus represented. For this Jewish scholar, as for any other scribes, a neighbor was another member of the tribe. Another Jew. And here Jesus begins to show superiority of love over legalism through the story of the Good Samaritan. The identity of the 'neighbor' requested by the legal expert turns out to be a Samaritan, the enemy of the Jew. And people who failed to be true neighbors were a priest and a Levite, men respected in Jewish community. This means that in the teaching of Jesus, “Good Samaritans” are the people who know how to believe in God, and they show charity, and they are the ones who deserve to inherit eternal life. “Good Samaritans” are the people who will take time to ‘approach the victim, pour oil and wine over his wounds and bandage him’. In short, they are the people who willingly spend time in practical help.

World Day of Grandparents and Elderly

Bishop Frank Dewane informs us that there is a Plenary Indulgence granted by Pope Francis for the Faithful on the 2nd Annual World Day of Grandparents and Elderly, July 24, 2022. The Indulgence may be obtained by fulfilling the usual conditions (confession, receiving Communion and saying prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father) and participating in the celebrations for the World Day of Grandparents and Elderly or by visiting, in presence or virtually, their elderly brothers and sisters in need or in difficulty.

Enjoy summer vacations!

May God bless all who are resting from school or work and give them a relaxing and safe vacation; may He protect all who are travelling to visit distant places or to see family members. May God bless those who have to work in the heat of the sun! May God give us all safe and good quality time!

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.

The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.

We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Prayer for the end of war in UkraineSend forth your Spirit O Lord and renew the face of the earth

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalms 86)

Send forth your Spirit O Lord and renew the face of the earth.Intercession for Life

The Bishop's Conference of the USA is asking us to pray. This week we pray: For the Church: May we faithfully witness in word and in deed to the dignity of every human life through comprehensive care of mothers and their children!

Church roof replacement information

Bishop Frank J. Dewane, who attended the St. Martha Finance Council meeting on April 6th, 2022 recommended for the replacement of the Church roof. Following, the Chancellor of the Diocese of Venice, Dr. Volodymyr Smeryk attended the St. Martha Finance Council meeting on April 27th, 2022 and confirmed this recommendation, referencing the water leaks. The Diocese proposed Crowther Roofing Company who prepared a quote for the roof replacement. The Finance Council looked into obtaining two other quotes, but due material and labor issues, none of the companies that were approached were able to help us at this time. In order to avoid price increases, the Diocese requested a decision from the Pastor to begin the project and so now we expect the work to begin soon. We will keep you updated with any disruptions that may affect access to the Church and the Mass schedule.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George
