From our Pastor, Fr. George...

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Sunday Sermon – 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

The federal holiday on January 16 commemorated the legacy of Martin Luther King Jr. since 1986, and invited everyone to improve their communities and follow in the footsteps of the civil rights leader who was assassinated in 1968.

Dr. Bernice Albertine King, the late civil rights activist's daughter, founder of the King Center, said in an interview with Vatican News, as Americans mark Martin Luther King Day, "As we were thinking about where our world is today in terms of all of the issues under the banner of what my father would call the triple evils of poverty, racism and militarism, it seems as if we're going through these cycles and repeating some things over and over again."

Rather than society continuing this vicious cycle, Martin Luther King Day is an invitation for Americans to build a "just, humane, equitable, and peaceful world."

As Christians, Jesus has charged us with being both light and salt for the world, noted Dr. King. "Being that light requires that we guide, because light is a guide," she said. "As it relates to the salt, salt preserves and it seasons, it preserves the nutrients that you need."

We Christians, therefore, need to work to preserve humanity and values such as "love, respect, and dignity," which never go out of style.

"We have to take the leadership because our world is in a moral crisis. It's in a spiritual crisis," said Dr. King. "And those of us who are spiritual people have to take our proper place to really lead us to ensure that we are reflecting those principles and values that are essential to the survival of our humanity."

St. Vincent Pallotti, a Roman priest who was born on April 21, 1875 and died in Rome on January 22, 1850 was also saying similar things to all Christians and all members of the Catholic Church about taking leadership in spreading the gospel values.

He used to say that everyone is an apostle and no matter who we are, we are all called to follow Jesus and offer our charity to our neighbor. He founded the Society of the Catholic Apostolate which is the part of the Union of the Catholic Apostolate. Catholic apostolate, which means universal, is for everyone who wants to help and everyone who needs help. Lay people as well as clergy can revive faith and re-ignite love in the Church.

St. Mathew writes in the gospel reading for today that, Jesus went to Capernaum, which prophet Isaiah calls: "Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light". Jesus begins his missionary work with his call for people to repent from sins and prepare for the kingdom of God. He calls his first disciples to follow him and he makes them fishers of men, apostles of his good news. He teaches in their synagogues, proclaims the gospel of the kingdom, cures every disease and illness among the people.

Jesus is the light for those who need to believe in God, he restores dignity to those who need healing, he is a good teacher for all nations, societies and groups of people who suffer different kinds of prejudice. He also forgives us and makes us better people when we go astray.

Week of prayer for Christian Unity

Between January 18 and 25, 2023, all Christians (those who believe in Jesus Christ and are baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity) are praying for unity of the Church of Christ in the world. Jesus himself teaches us to pray: "...that they may be one, as we are one – I living in them, you living in me – that their unity may be complete. So shall the world know that you sent me, and that you loved them as you loved me." (John 17: 22b-23)

Sunday of the Word of God (January 22)

Pope Francis instituted "Sunday of the Word of God" in 2019 as a way to promote the study of Sacred Scripture. This year, it falls on 22 January and has as its theme a verse from John's Gospel, "We proclaim to you what we have seen" (1 Jn 1:3). The aim of this special celebration is to give new life to the responsibility of all believers to deepen their knowledge of Sacred Scripture.

Feast of St. Vincent Pallotti

With all Pallottines around the world, your priests who are the members of the Society of the Catholic Apostolate, in short: the Pallottine Fathers and Brothers, pray to St. Vincent for God's blessing to everyone in the parish on this anniversary of his death on January 22, 1850. May, through the intercession of St. Vincent Pallotti, you receive the gift of God's grace that you seek at this time!

Please, reserve the dates for the Parish Mission (February 10-15, 2023)

Redemptorist Team for Evangelization: (Fr. Philip Dabney, Fr. Francis Gargani and Fr. James Wallace) will come to our parish in the middle of February to lead us through the Parish Mission. A parish mission is an event that calls a parish to deeper conversion and renewal. The heart of our parish mission is three evening prayer services (Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday) that include prayer, preaching, song, ritual, and opportunity for quiet reflection. In addition, we preside and preach at all weekend Masses, celebrate an anointing of the sick, a Marian service dedicated to Our Mother of Perpetual Help, opportunity for one-on-one meetings over 3 days, and addressing our school and CCD children in an age-appropriate way.

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Ukraine: Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me. Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalms 86)

Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

RESPECT LIFE

respect • love • protect

There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image.

Baptized Adults Not Confirmed as Catholics!

Are you a baptized adult Christian who wants to be a confirmed Catholic? If so, then register for the upcoming Adult Sacramental Preparation (ASAP) course. We will begin the ASAP confirmation program on Sunday mornings from January 8 through April 16, 10:15 to 11:15 a.m.

You will learn about the rich history of Catholicism from theologically trained instructors who are passionate about salvation. Graduation leads to adult Catholic confirmation.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Faithful of the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean face many challenges. For the past 55 years, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has helped the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean through an annual collection. This assistance has addressed barriers faced in increasing the growth of the Faith, including lack of resources, shortage of vocations and poor infrastructure making relatively simple things difficult.

The annual Collection for the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean helps them address a very secularized society and to fund pastoral programs like evangelization, catechesis, family life programs, and lay ministry training. The education and formation of priests, deacons, and religious brothers and sisters is also supported. These programs offer a promising hope for the Catholic Faith in this part of the world.

In the Parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice, the Collection for the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean will take place the weekend of January 21 and 22, 2023. Please take this opportunity to share your faith, despite the distance with your sisters and brothers in Latin America and the Caribbean, through your generosity.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for your support of the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
